

UNIVERSITY CONVOCATION.

DR. MABIE ON AMERICAN EXPANSION AND ITS HEARING.

The Process of Evolution Which is Now Bringing the Races Together—Re-entrance of the East Upon the Stage of Historic Life—Some Educational Topics Discussed.

ALBANY, June 26.—Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie, editor of The Outlook, closed to-night the second day's session of the "Lectures on the History of the United States," which were held at the University of the City of New York.

"The English speaking peoples are doing their best by virtue of their political education," he said. "It is political in form, but vital in essence. It is the unit, now enters upon its university course. We must now take up the problem of civilization. However we may feel as to territorial expansion we cannot fail to acknowledge all the world is akin."

"The current of historical evolution is sweeping the races on together and the perils of association are being met. We shall never stop in the union of races in this great historical evolution till all the races have come together and the East has looked with the West."

"It looks now as if the East was to be re-organized under Western civilization, as the fruits of it are gathered by the Western races, and to be revealed again in the Orient. From many points the re-entrance of the East upon the stage of historic life strikes upon the imagination with peculiar force. But it is no vision. It is taking place under our very eyes."

"The race of the future is the result of the fusion of the races of the present. The world is being remade by the fusion of the races of the present. The world is being remade by the fusion of the races of the present. The world is being remade by the fusion of the races of the present."

MINNOLA CALLS IT A JUDGMENT.

Three Buildings Formerly Used as Saloons Destroyed by Fire.

MINNOLA, June 26.—Temperance people in this village are pointing with triumph to the fact that has overtaken the three buildings formerly used as saloons on the road north of the broad plain on which Camp Bisco was pitched. Up to the time of the coming of the camp there was no place for the sale of liquor outside of the saloons. The establishment of the camp saloons, and the burning of the buildings, is a judgment upon the liquor traffic.

But one of the three buildings antedated the military camp. This was an old farmhouse, said to have been built nearly a hundred years ago. A man named Magnusson, who got a license and started a saloon there, was the owner. The other two buildings were built in 1880 and 1885. They were destroyed by fire on June 25.

The third owner leased a piece of land and put up a shack much like that of his immediate predecessor. It was a small building, but it was a business one for all of them, and it is said that all did well financially. When the camp was given up the liquor dealers closed their places. There was no more business to be done. The buildings were left to rot. The fire was a judgment upon the liquor traffic.

THE WEST FOR EXPANSION.

Senator Shoup Confident That President McKinley Will Be Re-elected.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Senator Shoup of Idaho is very confident of McKinley's re-election. "The Republicans," he said to-day, "will hold their own in the West and make large gains. They will hold Oregon and California and carry Washington. They will carry South Dakota, they have an even chance in Nebraska and more than an even chance in Colorado. Our people out West, especially on the coast, are expansionists. They see opening before them a market in the Orient. They feel the East is the Eastern seaboard has in Europe. Formerly our products had to cross the country and then be sent to Europe. Now they can go direct to the East from our own ports and find a market. Expansion will develop the manufacturing and the shipping interests of the Pacific Coast almost beyond belief."

Mr. Mead's Gift to Secure a Change in a Place's Name.

GREENWICH, Conn., June 26.—Miss Mead, an eccentric and wealthy resident of Greenwich, has induced the school district in which he resides to change its name from "East Portchester" to "New Lebanon." Mr. Mead has endeavored to bring about this change for years. He has been unsuccessful in the past. He has now succeeded. The school district has agreed to change its name. The change will take effect next September.

Matters of Interest Concerning Horses.

It is fully expected that the late Mr. J. B. Smith's columns that in any other horse, the horse's value is determined by its pedigree and its ability to perform its work.

ATLANTA'S STREET CAR FIGHT.

Bitter Municipal Contest Involved—The Victory of Mr. Hurl and Mr. Atkinson.

ATLANTA, June 26.—A municipal campaign is about to open in this city which promises to eclipse in picturesque and controversial features any former political struggle in Atlanta. It will not end until the result of the white primary is known next October. The keen observers say that one of the factions is headed by Joel Hurt of the Atlanta Consolidated Railway Company and the Atlanta Railway Company—intends to begin an out-and-out "Parkhurst" campaign, using for its purpose the Rev. Len G. Broughton, a preacher with sensational tendencies, and Sam Jones, the revivalist, both of whom like to back in the campaign of prosperity and notoriety. The men and events which led to this unusual state of affairs are many, but the storm center is over the heads of Mr. Hurl and H. M. Atkinson, the first about 35 years old and the second in his early thirties. Mr. Hurl is the head of the Georgia Electric Light Company, which is the Georgia Electric Light Company. For several years Mr. Hurl has been the real head of the street railway system of Atlanta. One after another he acquired competing lines until finally he was master of all. Legal and financial causes have prevented actual consolidation, although plans were prepared on several occasions.

When he bought the last competing line, the Atlanta Railway Company, from J. J. Spaulding and others, Mr. Hurl turned his attention to the electric lighting business. In his first financial plan he set aside $750,000 in bonds to acquire the Georgia Electric Light Company, of which Mr. Atkinson is President and which occupies the field singly. He placed the arbitrary value of $750,000 upon the property without consulting Mr. Atkinson or any one concerned in the electric light company. The figure was $300,000 under the actual amount invested in the plant, which at $100,000 was selling at a profit of 10 per cent. In the general consolidation plan had the electric light company been acquired at this price it would have increased the total earnings of the company 50 per cent and increased the capitalization only 25 per cent.

Apprentice Mr. Hurl believed he could acquire a new company for less money than he offered for Mr. Atkinson's plant. Intimations were made that the Georgia Electric Light Company would be forced from the field or bought at a nominal price. This took place early in 1900, when Mr. Hurl was the dominant man in Atlanta politics. He was then in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and was the head of the Georgia Electric Light Company. He was then in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and was the head of the Georgia Electric Light Company.

Mr. Hurl's plan was to acquire the Georgia Electric Light Company for less than the price offered for it. He was then in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and was the head of the Georgia Electric Light Company. He was then in the city of Atlanta, Georgia, and was the head of the Georgia Electric Light Company.
